

Glengarry Place for the Arts

PRESS RELEASE

28 July 2007

Remember, the 2nd annual Glengarry Heritage Day is being held once again on the day after the “Games”, by Glengarry Place for the Arts.

MacKinnon Hall, in St Elmo (2km North of Maxville), will be the place to meet on Sunday, August 05, 2007. There will be a full program of traditional entertainment (see attached), starting at 11:00am and running through until 4:00pm.

Activities will include Ceilidh Dancing, Celtic Music, Gaelic Singers, Historical Vignettes, Irish Dancers, Period Fashion Show, Pipers, and more.

The historic Congregational Hall will be the location for a classic "Ploughman's" Lunch, which will be served between noon and 1:30pm. The entrance fee of $7 includes the lunch.

For more information regarding the above, please visit the GPA website at www.glengarryPlace.ca/Events, or contact Julia Danskin - 613-527-2724.
